

A scroll with a light brown, textured surface, possibly representing parchment or aged paper. The scroll is unrolled, showing a central rectangular area. The text is written in a simple, black, sans-serif font. The scroll has four wooden rollers, one at each corner, which are partially visible. The edges of the scroll are slightly frayed and uneven.

Karangaranga Treaty

-Roxanne carson

A scroll with a title and three bullet points. The scroll is unrolled and held by wooden rods at the top and bottom. The text is written in a simple, black font on a light brown, textured background.

Look after our own property

- *Put belongings in the correct places

- *Remind each other to ask if they can use your belongings

- *Only bring appropriate things to school

A scroll with a title and a list of instructions. The scroll is unrolled and held by wooden rods at the top and bottom. The text is written in a simple, black font on a light brown, textured background.

Look after others property

- *Remind people to respect school/others property by
- *Cleaning up after ourselves
- *asking if we can use others property
- *using furniture for its purpose

A scroll with a light brown, textured surface, held by four wooden rollers. The text is written in a simple, black, sans-serif font.

Thinking and learning to learn in Karangaranga

*we focus on our learning

*we have positive learning conversations with teachers and students

*we use thinking and planning tools to support our learning

*we set goals

Relating to others

- *We use our manners
- *we make good choices for us as learners
- *we share and we care for others

Managing self

- *Be organised
- *Act smart
- *show courage

A scroll with a light brown, textured surface, possibly made of parchment or leather. It is rolled up at the top and bottom edges, with wooden rods visible through the holes. The scroll is slightly wrinkled and has some small tears or creases along the edges.

Moving in and around the hub

- *walk quietly and sensibly
- *walk without distracting others learning
- *Consider other people working
- *Managing self

Evacuation drill

*keep calm

*walk quickly out the nearest exit

*encourage others to move quickly in a safe manner

*Meet at designated area, on the field in your homeroom

A scroll of parchment, unrolled to reveal text. The scroll is made of a light brown, textured material, possibly parchment or vellum, and is held together by four wooden pegs at the corners. The text is written in a simple, black, sans-serif font. The scroll is set against a plain white background.

Made by: Roxanne Carson